

Elphin: 19th-21st July 2023

Venue: Naismith Hut, Elphin

Places Available: 8

Cost: £40

This fine hut is the fifth and latest to be maintained by the SMC. It was opened in 1999 and named the Naismith Hut, after William Naismith, one of the founder members of the SMC. The conversion of the building for use as a climbers' hut was made possible by funds bequeathed by Prof. P.B.Ayscough.

A great location for the northern hills and Assynt. The hut is well kitted out and we have reserved 8 beds, it has gas cookers, gas and electric heating, electric lighting, drying room, toilets an 1 shower.

The hut is located in Elphin, in the far-flung North-west of Scotland. As there are several neighbouring private residences, users of the hut are asked to avoid unnecessary disturbance, particularly when arriving late in the evening. The narrow loop road must not be obstructed by vehicles.

This event will open for bookings from 6pm on Sunday 7th April 2024
